Reasons for choosing SAP

As an innovative and modern company, which must respond quickly to new trends in the market, Walker needed a flexible business solution which can be adapted to react to changing requirements.

Key benefits

- The master data of the two companies are recorded only once and therefore data consistency is guaranteed.
- Automatic consolidation of financial transactions enables us to have an accurate overview of our group's financials at any time
- User queries over all companies enable the user to have insight into business data across company borders
- Credit management of customers over both companies allows us an all-round view on customers

Customer quotes

A system is only as good as the data stored in it - even more when working with several companies. The intercompany solution helps us to ensure data consistency of master data across all companies.

With the intercompany solution we have a complete overview of our customers over all companies in terms of sales and open items."
